Food Assistance – Winter 2012

The Diocese of Ogdensburg will once more make modest grants this winter to church or ecumenical or community food programs to offset the cost of the purchase of food for which the parish or program must pay. Grants can be used only for the purchase of food and not for administrative costs or other purposes. To request a grant please complete this short application. Each application must be approved and submitted by the pastor or administrator of a parish of the Diocese of Ogdensburg.

Grant requests must be received by January 27, 2012. Notification of awards and the distribution of funds will take place soon after February 15.
